

Yabadooski, I Love You-ski

(This wacky, lively tune is based on a true story. So when you're feeling confused by feelings, just say "Yabadooski!")

Sue Malcolm and Vic Smyth

The musical score is written in a single system with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a common time signature (C). It consists of six staves of music. The first staff is in treble clef, and the subsequent five staves are in bass clef. The lyrics are written below the notes. Chord symbols (F, C7, G7) are placed above the notes. There are three triplet markings (indicated by a '3' above a bracket) in the fifth and sixth staves. The lyrics are: "Ya-ba - doo - ski, I love you - ski, Your fee - lings are o - kay. Ya-ba - doo-ski, I love you-ski, have a Ya-ba-da-ba-doo-ski day. Have a Ya-ba - da-ba-doo-ski day. One day when I was wa-lking I saw a sca-ry - sight. A great big dog jumped up on me so I ran with all my might I ran as fast as my feet could fly to find my mom and dad. I felt so scared, I star-ted to cry and this is what they said: Ya - ba

(2nd verse:)

I got so mad one morning
 When I could not tie my shoes
 I threw them both across the room;
 I didn't know what to do
 My dad said, don't you worry
 Sometimes we all get mad
 It's good to get those feelings out
 And this is what he said . . .

(3rd verse:)

My mom and dad went out one night
 For a dinner and dancing date
 The babysitter came over
 And they said they'd be home late
 I got so nervous I could not sleep
 When I went up to bed
 I stayed awake till they got home
 And this is what they said . . .
